

Merry 'call for proposals' and happy new 'website'!

As the festive season approaches, we are delighted to announce that the call for proposals for AIEC 2015 is now open and we are ready to receive submissions for next year. To find out more about the call for proposals process and other AIEC 2015 news, please visit www.aiec.idp.com and check out the AIEC website's recent 'face-lift'!

We will regularly update the conference website so keep checking in. We look forward to catching up with you in the new year!

Call for proposals: Submit a proposal by 2 March 2015!

The AIEC program presents a combination of core sessions, panels and plenaries designed by the AIEC committee. Through our open call for proposals we aim to select proposals that complement and enhance these core sessions. If you have a proposal in mind, please read the full CFP guidelines on the conference website and make sure you submit it before Monday 2 March 2015.

AIEC 2015: 'International education: global, responsible, sustainable'

AIEC 2015 will focus on the challenges facing international education in attempting to contribute to a sustainable, harmonious, just and global community as well as on the sustainability of our industry itself. Our aim, among others, will be to explore the role of international education in fostering responsibility and sustainability at the global, regional, national and institutional levels. Will you be part of this conversation?
