

National Symposium: Engaging Students as Partners in Global Learning

The Symposium will create a vibrant space in which to discuss critical, theoretical and practical perspectives on engagement and partnership in global learning.

Keynote speakers include: Professor Betty Leask (La Trobe University) and Professor Fazal Rizvi (Melbourne University).

This event is supported by Wendy Green's Australian Learning and Teaching Fellowship on Engaging students as partners in global learning.

Date: 9th October 2017

Time: 9.30AM – 4.30PM. (Registration 9.00 – 9.30).

Place: Allan Bray Room, University Club, 38A Dobson Road, UTAS, Sandy Bay (Hobart), Tasmania.

Registration: The Symposium is open to all interested staff and students. Registration is free. Places are limited. Please register via Eventbrite

Questions? Email noor.khan@utas.edu.au

Engaging students as partners in global learning