

IAEC 2018 Sydney

Panel on 'A new era for International education in Indonesia?'

Professor Caroline Chan

STUDY ON INDONESIA'S SUPPLY CHAIN SKILLS GAP

120 companies
Professional associations
Government units

Part 1

Industry interviews, workshops and dialogues

Map Indonesia's supply chain and logistics system, identify broad themes and the system's skills training gap

Survey

Conduct a major industry survey to understand the skills need

Training Solutions

Design and develop a delivery platform and a range of training solutions to address the sector's vocational education, higher education and executive level training

DEMAND, SUPPLY, ISSUES AND OPPORTUNITIES

DEMAND

Industry-focused
Certification &
Accreditation

SUPPLY

Structured curriculum
Highly regulated HE sector

Universities/ HE

Universities
Polytechnics
Businesses/ Associations
National training systems
Specialist institutions

ISSUES

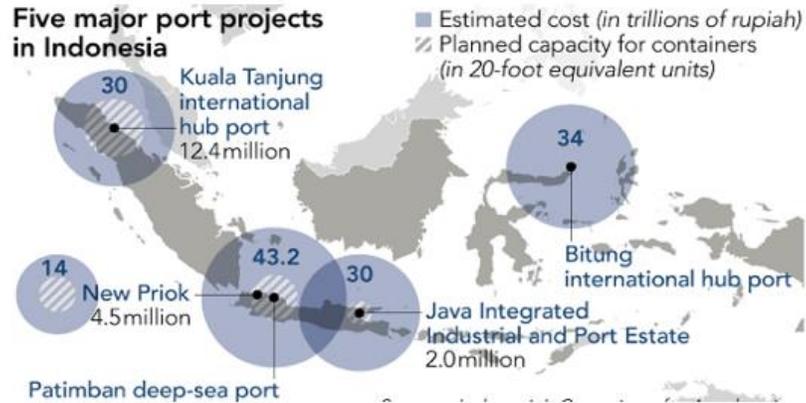

Perception of Vocational
Standard of teaching
Relevancy of curriculum
Use of digital technologies
Inflexible structure/ delivery

SKILLS

Soft skills
Digital
Analytics
Work ready
Internships

ADDRESSING THE SKILLS GAP – AREAS OF FOCUS

Nikkei Asian Review

Indonesia sneaks up on Singapore with flurry of port projects

Australian universities to benefit in Australia-Indonesia free trade deal

The Jakarta Post

Skill gap in construction

The Straits Time

Amazon plans 14 trillion-rupiah investment in Indonesia

The Australian Financial Review

Indonesia wants vocational training experts to train builders, service providers